

Required Consultant for Developing Case Studies

SCOPE in partnership with PPAF is implementing “Livelihood Employment and Enterprise Development” project in District Thatta. The goal of the project is “helping the poor, land-less and asset-less in order to enable them to gain access to resources for their productive self-employment, to encourage them to undertake activities of income generation and poverty alleviation and for enhancing their quality of life.”

SCOPE with the support of Pakistan Poverty Alleviation Fund (PPAF) number of projects implemented in two union council Meher and Buhara of district Thatta. The SCAD (Sindh Coastal area development) program aims to improve livelihoods of coastal communities affected by the left Bank outfall Drain (LBOD). The project which implemented in the area includes livelihood, water and sanitation, social mobilization Disaster preparedness and management and skill training components.

Case Study: To highlight the project activities and achievements, case studies needs to be made. The selected person/agency should have expertise and experience in case studies around successes, new initiatives, and learning arising from PPAF III implementation. The activities to be covered are being conducted in two union councils of district Thatta. person/agency should be experienced in research, analysis and report writing with excellent written English skills. Consultants/resource persons/organizations having relevant experience are required to develop atleast 8-10 case studies covering each component and outcome of the project.

Scope of Work (SoW):

- To identify case studies that may already exist or may need to be researched and written up – so as to be representative of each component area covered under PPAF III
- To refine case studies already available but of poor quality, ensuring further information is obtained
- To research and write at least 8-10 new case studies as identified by the staff

Qualifications of Applicant:

- Master's degree in relevant subject
- Minimum 5 years' experience or preparing written documents/reports/blogs/articles in English
- Excellent written communication skills, including report-writing, in English

Deliverables and Responsibilities:

- Design case study template to be used as the standard across all such studies
- 10 quality case studies written up showcasing SCOPE's work
- 5 prepared case studies rewritten according to quality standard
- SCOPE will provide support to coordinate with the interviewees and the beneficiaries of all the project components
- Consultant will be responsible for their travel to Thatta (Sakro) whereas SCOPE will provide transportation to the project field area with field staff
- Selected firm/consultant/individual will submit the draft case studies on given time frame
- The case studies will be due by 3 weeks period after agreement signing
- The taxes on fee payment will be liability of the firm

Interested candidates should send their CV/profile, specifically highlighting the previous such assignment covered along with proposed financial cost/fee at khan@scope.org.pk by 25-August 2015.